READINGS & COLLECT:

ACTS 17:22-31; PSALM 66:7-19; 1 PETER 3:8-22; JOHN 14:15-21

THE SENTENCE - 'Those who love me will keep my word,' Jesus promises, 'and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.' John 14.23

THE COLLECT

O God,
you have prepared for those who love you
joys beyond our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love for you,
that, loving you above all else,
we may obtain your promises
that exceed all we can desire;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of this land, the Jinibara and the Gubbi Gubbi people and their care of it for thousands of years. Open to the Spirit who has ever been present here, we resolve to appreciate its beauty, to be wise stewards of its resources, and to honour the connection the Jinibara and the Gubbi Gubbi people have with this land.

REFLECTIONS: - Fr Paul

Dear Friends

I can't say how accurate this is, but it comes from a reasonably authentic source, but in the preparation for the coronation of King Charles III the liturgy to be used was released as resources for those churches that might have a service to coincide. I was listening during the TV coverage and I couldn't quite make out or quite decide whether this was used, or corrected, but the collect was released in preparatory papers. I ponder whether you can spot the mistake.(*answer below!)

Just imagine how many administrative, secretarial, office, clerical, church and royal palace staff had a chance to check and agree to it.

Collect

Archbishop of Canterbury:

Let us pray.
Lord, enthroned in heavenly splendour:
look with favour upon thy servant Charles our King,
and bestow upon him such gifts of wisdom and love
that we and all thy people may live in peace and prosperity
and in loving service one to another,
to thine eternal glory;
who with the Father and the Holy Spirit
reigns supreme over all things,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

*Someone, somewhere missed out the phrase “through Jesus Christ our Lord,” and in so doing elevated King Charles III to divine status equating him with a place in the divine trinity! How embarrassing!

It all goes to prove that mistakes can be made, no matter how many people there are to check something. A priest can make a mistake: parish staff, church wardens, members of parish councils, LAs, members of choir, readers, audio-visual producers, cleaners, flower arrangers, gardeners, members of a congregation, magazine and pew bulletin editors, website and electronic communicators, everyone, in fact, can make mistakes.

It used to tickle my brain thinking about education. Some of us do well at school, some of us do well at further and higher education. But very few of us achieve 100% at any of those levels. Which means that nearly all of us do less than perfect. We all make mistakes.

Jesus, being the Son of God, and our saviour understand this. He doesn't ask us to be perfect. He asks us to try. In fact that is why he willingly suffered being crucified: to save us from our mistakes. Heaven isn't full of perfect people. Heaven isn't perfect because we are perfect. Heaven is perfect because God perfectly bestows God's grace upon us and perfectly forgives us.

Phew! Isn't that just as well!
Blessings,

Paul

AUTUMN CHURCH TOGETHER

Art Exhibition

5-7pm Friday 12 May, Evening Cheese and Wine Reception.
10am-3pm Saturday 13 May exhibition and workshops

Pentecost

Sunday 28 May. All-age activity.

I imagine a kite-pageant with kites attached to bamboo sticks with pictures and designs of doves, or parrots and flames for around the church procession. 'Come Holy Ghost our souls inspire' and 'Come down O Love Divine'.

TRAINING DAY:

I am so grateful to be given the time and opportunity to attend the Administrators Training Day held at Maleny Parish on Friday 28 April. It was great to connect with other people working in parish offices here on the Sunshine Coast. We talked about how we can support each other in times of need. What a lovely venue we had too. Thank you to the Debs at Maleny Parish for hosting us and the parishioners who looked after us providing morning tea and lunch. Also our trainer Kelly was a wealth of information about support and programs available from the diocese. I am excited to return to work and look into implementing some of the suggestions that will improve the way I work. For example, now that we have met each other, we administrators have set up a group chat on Microsoft Teams so we can keep in touch and support each other.

Thank you, Andrea.

Kelinda (Nambour), Kelly (Diocese),
Andrea (Caloundra), Leanne (Caloundra)

JUSTACT ☸

Helping the parish's understanding and support of social justice issues.

This Sunday it's a double celebration – Mother's Day and World Fair Trade Day! Let us celebrate mothers – being one, having one - and ethically toast them with a fairtrade cuppa after worship this Sunday at St Andrew's.

Here are a few possible things we can do to support the world's farmers, and workers, their children and communities:

1. Buy fairtrade products – look out for the fairtrade symbol
2. Provide feedback to your supermarket, coffee shop or brand, thanking them for stocking fairtrade products or asking that they do so and explaining why.
3. Learn more about the fairtrade movement and how the 10 Principles of Fair Trade link with biblical truths and values with this Bible Study: 10 Principles of Fair Trade resource
4. Pray: Thank you, Lord, for this beautiful world – your creation, so beautiful, intricate and interdependent. Thank you that the whole of creation praises you. Help us in the wealthy countries, to better steward natural resources, so we can join in creation's praise. And, help us to be more intentional about supporting artisans, farmers and employees who work in the supply chains of the products we purchase. Amen

SO THAT WE REMEMBER – from Rev Dr Ray

The entry for 12 May on the Website "So That We Remember" contains quotes from a letter written in 1826 to the Methodist Missionary Society in London by a colonist in Australia. Part of it reads: Justice demands what humanity dictates, and Christianity requires, that we should not usurp the possession of another's rights, however advantageous such may be to ourselves or however easy of accomplishment.

It is almost 200 years since that was written. Is that still a minority view in modern Australia?

GARDEN NOTES – from Ken and the gardeners

Originating from South America and introduced as a garden ornamental, the tree, which can grow 10m high, has escaped gardens and invaded our coastal areas. Its berries are spread by birds and animals and the plant contains toxic resins that can affect human and animal health.

There were several large Pepper trees in St Andrew's Garden and despite cutting off at ground level, they continued to grow shoots and had left a legacy of seedlings in our garden due to being spread by birds. An indication of just how invasive this species has become; the Council are using drone technology to locate and eradicate along coastal shoreline.

Some alternatives to Broad Leaf Pepper are: Blueberry Ash, Tuckeroo, Beach Bird's Eye and Cooloola Ironwood.

RESPITE AND RESIDENTIAL AGED CARE:

Rights, responsibilities, care, concerns and choice, all discussed at a free seminar and expo for anyone interested.

ANGLICAN FRENZ:

If there is anyone who lives in the Little Mountain area and attends this service and is able to pick up the lady and then return her to her house, please contact Lorraine Conolly on 0431 752 686. The lady uses a wheelie walker and that needs to go with her.

SAFETY INDUCTION: THURSDAY 1 JUNE

It will held on Thursday 1 June 10-10.30 am. If you are a Parish Councillor or leader of a Church Group, it is desirable that you attend the session. Everyone else also welcome. Thank you, Executive Team

This is for everyone who is involved in providing morning teas, breakfasts and other events where food is served at all our Churches. Legislation from Queensland Government must be followed in food handling and safety. The course is also available online, and you may bring your laptop to follow the discussion. Thank you, Executive Team
